PROPOSITION TO MAKE THE SENATE ROTUNDA A BALL ROOM.

A RICH AND SPICY DEBATE.

The House concurrent resolution granting the use of the rotunda and certain other portions of the Capitol for the use of the managers of the inauguration ball was taken up in the U. S. Senate on Wednesday.

Mr. Grimes asked an explanation.

Mr. Fessenden said the committee on public buildings and grounds had already considered this matter, and were all but unanimous in favor of it. It was for the unofficial ceremonies attending the inauguration, the ball, &c., and it was impossible for a building to be put up large enough.

Mr. Sumner suggested the patent office; it had been used four years ago.

Mr. Cattell said the patent office was full of old traps, which could not be removed.

Mr. Pomeroy asked if there was any law which obliged a ball to be held?

Mr. Fessenden replied that there was a law, so far as public opinion was concerned.

Mr. Cameron thought no good could come of this matter, and he opposed the Senate taking any part in this useless pageant.—He did not want any ball or any dance in these halls. When Jefferson was inaugurated he got on his horse, rode up to the Capitol, hitched his horse to a stake, and walked into the Senate chamber and took the oath, and then went home again.

Mr. Nye asked if there was anything to prevent Gen. Grant from doing the same thing if he could find the stake. [Laughter.]

Mr. Cameron was willing to pay his proportion of ball expenses; supposed it would cost them $30 a piece; he did not mind this, but he did not want any of it in the Capitol. Four years ago we were disgraced in this chamber, in the eyes of the world, and the foreign ministers insulted, and although he had no fear of a repetition of that scene, he though it was better to avoid all these ceremonies. The next thing we might have a President who would come up here and demand to have a ball in the Capitol.

Mr. Trumbull thought it exceedingly inappropriate to hold a ball in this building. It was said that there would be no liquor in here, but he apprehended that liquor could be obtained very near, and it was not desirable to have any bacchanalian orgies in the Capitol.

Mr. Ferry thought it very meet to have a merry making at the inauguration, and saw no objection to the ceremonies taking place here. The whole building would be under the control of the sergeant-at-arms of the two houses, who had a most efficient police under their charge.

Mr. Sumner said the question was not whether to have a ball, but whether that ball should be held in this Capitol. This resolution was essentially bad in itself, and would set a bad precedent. People would want to dance at other times than the inauguration, and there would be no end to the applications that would be made for the use of the Capitol for a dance.

Mr. Patterson, of New Hampshire, believed it would offend the prejudices of a large portion of the American people to give up this building to such a purpose.—He would sooner dance in a tent.

Mr. Fessenden—Can't get one big enough.

Mr. Hendricks asked whether the Capitol had ever before been used for a dance-house?

Mr. Nye was sorry that the religious prejudices of the Senator from New Hampshire had been aroused, but they had scriptural authority for dancing. There had been dancing before the ark, dancing after coming out of the Red sea, and various other times when dancing was permitted.

Mr. Doolittle asked if there had ever been dancing pursuant to act of Congress?—[Laughter.]

Mr. Patterson, of New Hampshire, asked if it would not be proper to have an amendment providing for a show in connection with the other ceremonies; the Black Crook for instance?

Mr. Nye.—There have been many worse shows here than the Black Crook.

Mr. Doolittle asked if the Senator did not know that a large proportion of the people of the United States, who owned the Capitol as much as we, were opposed to dancing—Presbyterians, Baptists and Methodists particularly.

Mr. Nye was born a Presbyterian, was judicially a Baptist, by habit an Episcopalian, and by inclination a Methodist, (great laughter,) but despite all this, and old as he was, he felt like dancing himself.—(Laughter.) He imagined that the great trouble with his friend (Mr. Doolittle) was that the dance was for General Grant.—(Laughter.)

Mr. Cameron thought it would be much better for all concerned to have the ball somewhere else. No liquors were to be had here, it is said, and this would make it very dull; for a dry dance is no dance at all.—[Laughter.]

Mr. Conkling remarked that undoubtedly a large part of the American people would regard the giving up of this Capitol to a ball as most inappropriate. The ball would be held, of course, whether it was held here or not, and Gen. Grant could certainly be inaugurated in pursuance of the constitution and laws, even if no ball was held.

Mr. Fessenden could see no harm at all in letting the parties have the Capitol. His moral and religious sensibilities might be very obtuse, but he could see no danger in it, and those who thought the Capitol would be desecrated could stay away.

Mr. Wilson did not think it proper to give up the rotunda, where John Quincy Adams fell, and our martyred President lay, to the dance.

Mr. Yates would welcome the inauguration of Gen. Grant with bonfires and bells and cannon, but he did not want to give up the rotunda for a ball.

Mr. Morton believed it would be just as appropriate for the gentlemen having this ball in charge to apply to the vestry of any church in this city for the use of their church building for a ball as to ask for the rotunda. He had no objection to a ball whatever, but there was propriety in all things.

The question was then taken on the concurrent resolution, when it was rejected by a vote of 22 ayes to 26 nays.

MISCEGENATION—DISGUSTING RESULTS OF RADICAL TEACHING.

A strange couple came up from Erie, on the Lake Shore Road, Saturday evening—exciting the disgust and intense curiosity of every passenger in the car. It comprised a sooty, greasy negro, and a pretty white girl, whom he had married the day before at Erie. The girl evidently felt a great deal of shame at her situation, for she kept herself doubly veiled, and looked out of the car all the time. Her "Othello," however, was all passionate tenderness and attention. We have learned the antecedents of the pair, which we lay before our readers:

On Thursday last, a tall, gaunt, very black negro, about forty years of age, registered at the Morton House, Erie, as "William Lindsey and wife, Ohio." He requested the landlord to give him the best room in the house, as his wife would arrive on the next train. His "wife" not putting in an appearance by the next morning, he went to Oberlin after her. It happened that the girl—Carrie Brown by name—however, was en route for Erie to join her lover (ugh!) and the train that he was on passed hers. Arriving at Erie and learning the state of affairs, Carrie remained in the depot till evening when Lindsey returned from Oberlin. They then went to the hotel and asked to be showed to his room. The landlord asked the negro if the lady with him was his wife. Andrews answered in the affirmative. The landlord then interrogated the lady who was a beautiful young Irish girl. She said they were not yet married, but that they had come for the purpose of being married. The two were then told that they must produce a certificate of marriage before they could occupy a room together, wherefore they called upon the Rev. Mr. Nutting, of Erie, and were married.

The girl said she came from Boston, Massachusetts; that she had been living in the family of Professor Allen, of Oberlin, and attending school; that she there met this man, her present husband, Wm. DeLancey, alias Wm. Lindsay. He says he is a Wesleyan Methodist preacher. Prof. Allen knew of her leaving to marry the negro, and was in favor of her marriage. They left Erie on Saturday morning for Oberlin. The bridge was a pretty girl, and was well dressed. She says her parents live in Boston. She has been in Oberlin since October last. The girl is about 18 or 19 years of age. DeLancey wore a tall stovepipe hat, and carried a cotton umbrella in his hand. We would like to comment upon this case, but it is too disgusting; we cannot trust our feelings.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.. Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid. This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

DESPOTISM OF RECONSTRUCTION. TIMOGENES AND DANIEL SICKLES —FALSE SENSE OF HONOR.

For the purpose of radiating light upon the horrors of Reconstruction, we resume the publication of Gov. Worth's letter to President Johnson,—the present portion treating of the arrest and imprisonment of Messrs. McRae, Tolar, Powers and Watkins, for avenging an outrage on female chastity.

True honor is the feeling that neither gives nor submits to insult. It is a graceful ornament to mankind. Gen. Sickles, as this letter will show, has a mistaken sense of honor. History mentions Timogenes as a lively instance of one actuated by false honor. He allowed men to curse his Maker, but ran a man through for speaking ill of his friend. He slew, in a duel, a young friend who spoke of the beautiful Belinda, a lady whom he had ruined, betrayed and reduced to want, ignominy and shame. Gen. Sickles, in blood, revenged himself by the cold blooded murder of a friend for a supposed wrong to female chastity. He incarcerates Tolar, Powers and Watkins, for avenging a known outrage of brutish barbarity upon innocence and virtue!

Verily, Reconstruction destroys all the good feelings of the Reconstructor, whether it be Gen. Sickles, or the thievish Bureau officer, who was presented by the Grand Jury of Orange, for bribery and releasing felons from jail.

RALEIGH, Dec. 31, 1867.

In February or March last, a poor young woman of good family and exemplary character, residing some two miles from Fayetteville, on her way home from church, on Sunday, was way-laid by a negro named Bebee. He seized her and bore her into the woods, violently choking her to suppress her cries, but her screams reached the ears of an old negress in time to prevent the monster from perpetrating the crime he meditated. On the approach of the old negress he ran off. The next day he was arrested and taken before Duncan G. McRae, Esq., for preliminary trial. The trial was held in the upper story of the Market House, in Fayetteville.

An uncle of the accused was allowed to employ a lawyer, who appeared in defence of the accused. The young woman and old negress identified the villain, and the bruised neck of the young lady bore the imprint of his infernal clutches. No doubt was felt then, or has been expressed since, by black or white, as to his guilt.

The shocking character of the offence drew together about the Market House a large crowd, most of whom were excluded from the Hall where the trial was going on. The Sheriff was on the ground with the whole police force of the town, armed with their clubs, to guard the negro from the apprehended vengeance of the crowd. He was committed for trial and placed in the custody of the Sheriff, to be carried to the jail. He was carried down the stairs, an officer of the police at either arm, and the Sheriff at his back. On landing below he made a violent attempt to escape, but was held firmly by his custodians. In the struggle he fell. As he rose, some one behind fired a pistol shot, the ball passing through the hair of the Sheriff's head. It took effect in the head of Bebee, who instantly expired.

A Coroner's inquest was held and many witnesses were examined. One or more of them swore that Captain Tolar shot him.—Capt. Tolar, as I learn, was a quiet, good citizen, a member of a religious society and of the Masonic order, and held in high esteem by all his acquaintances. Other witnesses, deemed more worthy of credit, swore that they were near Capt. Tolar when the pistol fired, and that they knew he did not fire it. One Phillips, and, perhaps, others, displayed weapons on the occasion. The jury reported that they could not satisfactorily ascertain who committed the homicide.

The first Court having cognizance of the alleged crime commenced its sitting on the 13th of May, 1867. A few days before the sitting of this Court, General Avery applied to Gen. Sickles for the arrest and trial, before a Military Court, of Capt. Tolar, Powers and Watkins, and Duncan G. McRae.—Gen Sickles ordered the arrest. Before the prisoners were carried off by the military, the Grand Jury of the county, upon a bill preferred by the Solicitor against Tolar for murder, found it a true bill, and a capias issued accordingly, which the Sheriff could not execute, because the military refused to surrender him. No bill was sent against the others, because the attention of the Solicitor was not called to any witness, who would swear to facts warranting the sending of a bill. These arrests, therefore, could not be based on any pretext that the Court was in any way in fault.

Duncan G. McRae had long been a leading Justice of the Peace of his county, was a member of the State Convention of 1865, and was widely known as a man of exemplary character and strong Union proclivities. On his way to Fort Macon, the military prison designated for his confinement, distant some two hundred miles from his home and family, he got a friend to send a telegram to Gen. Sickles, inquiring for what cause, and by whose order, he had been arrested, and whether he could be allowed to give bail. He declined to accept bail, and referred to Gen. Miles, Chief of the Freedman's Bureau, stationed here, as to the charge, &c. Upon application by me to Gen. Miles, he said the arrest had been made by order of Gen. Sickles, upon the application of Gen. Avery, and that he had not power to release McRae upon bail, or on his parole; that Gen. Sickles alone had this power; that Gen. Avery was not then in his office; that, as soon as he came in, he would ask him to call at my office and explain. The conduct of Gen. Miles was entirely satisfactory to me. Gen. Avery called on me soon after, and stated that the charge against the prisoners would be specifically made out and sent to Headquarters soon; that he then could only state to me, in general terms, that the charge was the murder of Bebee, and that McRae was an accessory before the fact. I learned from him, or had otherwise heard, (I cannot be certain which,) that the foundation of the arrest of McRae was the affidavit of a weak minded, base woman, procured by Gen. Avery, in which she proved that, immediately after the committing of Bebee, he had gone out on a platform to a window and called on the crowd to shoot the prisoner, and that, immediately thereafter, the negro was shot.

The friends of McRae furnished me soon after with the affidavits of the uncle of Bebee, who had procured for him the services of a lawyer who had appeared for him on the trial, of the lawyer himself, and of several other witnesses, white and black, who swore positively that they were present and knew that McRae had not risen from his seat from the time of ordering the committal until after the fatal shot was fired, and that when he heard the negro was killed, he expressed his regret.

These affidavits I sent to General Sickles and asked him if he could not take bail to discharge McRae on his parole. I further asked that all the prisoners be turned over to the civil authorities for trial. I had heard the Court Martial for the trial of these prisoners was to sit here. Fayetteville is 60 miles distant from this City and no communication between the two places by Railroad or steam, except by way of Wilmington and Goldsboro, a circuitous route more than 200 miles long. I asked, therefore, if he would not turn over the prisoners to the civil Courts, as it was probable that a vast number of witnesses would be examined, that the Court Martial should be held in Fayetteville or in Wilmington, rather than here. It was known that the defendants could not pay their witnesses, many of whom would probably be unable to pay for their transportation and their expenses while here. He replied that the prisoners would be tried before a Court Martial in Raleigh, but that the Judge Advocate would be directed to summon the witnesses for the defence and to give them transportation to and from Raleigh.

The arrest was made on the 15th of May. All of them were confined at Fort Macon till the 20th of July; brought on that day to Raleigh to be tried before a Court Martial, of which General Avery was Judge Advocate. The Judge Advocate had not made out and filed his charges and specifications, and, not being ready for trial, the Court adjourned from day to day at his instance until the 22nd. of July, when the trial commenced.

On the 29th of July, the Judge Advocate introduced the aforesaid woman, the only witness against McRae. Nobody, white or black, could be found to say she was worthy to be believed. Her conduct on the witness stand exhibited such manifest willingness to perjure herself, that General Avery relented and asked to withdraw her testimony and to enter a nol. pros as to McRae, which was unanimously granted by the Court, and he was discharged, after more than ten weeks imprisonment. It is proper to add that I am informed by McRae, that Gen. Avery, in the month of April previous to the arrest, had abused McRae for an official act of the latter, and, finding McRae would not yield to his dictation, told McRae he should suffer for it!

The trial of the other defendants terminated about the middle of September in a conviction of murder, after a sitting of more than two months, at an enormous and unnecessary expense to the government and the prisoners. It would be interesting to know the cost of these trials. The Court Martial adjudged that the prisoners should be hanged. This sentence, under the act of Congress, could not be executed without approval. It did not go before you, I presume, because Gen. Canby commuted it to fifteen years imprisonment at hard labor.

Whether this finding was just or unjust does not fall within the scope of this communication, and I have not examined the annexed evidence save as I read it, as reported for the newspapers as the trial progressed. I understand it to have been founded on the evidence of one Phillips, whom the military, at one time, held under arrest as one of the murderers, who procured his own release by turning State's evidence, and upon the evidence of other witnesses who swore they saw Tolar shoot the negro, while other witnesses swore they saw Phillips shoot the negro.

The guilt or innocence of Tolar turned entirely upon the credibility of the witnesses, which could have been best judged of by an impartial jury of the country.

If there was any evidence warranting the conviction of the other defendants it escaped me.

NEW THEORIES OF GOVERNMENT.

Secession and Reconstruction, the two new and modern theories of Government, —each in its turn so popular with the people—have proven, after fair and full trial, as false as Holden in theory, and as oppressive as Nero in practice.

There is more warrant to be found for Secession in the Constitution, than for Reconstruction. Thomas Jefferson was one of the earliest friends and advocates of State sovereignty and Secession. He was elected the third President of the United States on that Platform. John Adams, who was defeated by him, declared that "when the principles of Thomas Jefferson were put into practice, there was at once an end of the government or a civil war."

Jefferson, the first, and Buchanan, the last, Democratic President, were both Secessionists. When South Carolina seceded, in December, 1861, Mr. Buchanan, in his Message to Congress, in March afterwards, declared he had no power to coerce a State. The Convention which framed the Constitution of the United States, unanimously with Washington and Madison as delegates in it, voted, on two occasions, against allowing Congress to coerce a State. Secession was a doctrine not confined to the South. Dan Sickles, the very week that South Carolina seceded, declared that he would raise a Democratic regiment for every Republican regiment that was raised for coercion of the South, and he would whip the Republicans before they left home. The great States of Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, and the whole North, were converted to the Jeffersonian faith of Democracy,—Secession and State sovereignty. They adhered to it for sixty years. The people of the North now repudiate the doctrine of Jefferson, so long embraced, and call themselves Republicans. They invent a new theory of government and call it Reconstruction—in its theory as sinful and peaceable as Secession; in its practice as bloody as John Brown; and as ruinous as Jacobinism itself.

In North Carolina, Gov. Holden was the teacher of both iniquities,—for twenty long years, of Jefferson's theory of Secession and State sovereignty. In this Judge Rodman, Judge Dick, Judge Settle, Judge Watts, Judge Caldwell, and others, followed him, subscribing to his paper, (the Standard,) and his doctrines, reading the one, inculcating the other, and disseminating both among the people.

Now, too, they subserviently follow Holden—subscribing to his paper, (the Standard,) teaching his new theory of despotism, called Reconstruction, and making treason odious in the person and in the punishment of the old Marshal of the Supreme Court,—yes, the old servant of the Court!

Judge Rodman, Judge Caldwell, Brick Pomeroy and Chauncey Burr will now acknowledge themselves as believing in Secession,—Judge Dick, Judge Settle and Judge Watts denying that they were ever Secessionists.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Jan. 16, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Love arose to a question of privilege and said: Mr. President, I hold in my hand a carricature of myself and the Senator from Guilford, drawn by some dirty rascal and placed on one of the mantels of the Senate Chamber for public inspection. This is done to bring your Committee on Penitentiary affairs, of which I have the honor to be a member, into disrepute and ridicule. I simply have to say, sir, for myself, that I have no language to express my contempt for the scurvy artist and his confederates, and to remark that it it is expected to intimidate me in the discharge of a public duty, the shot has missed the mark.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill to provide for the settlement of the estates of deceased persons,—the question being on the reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was rejected. The vote was reconsidered and the bill was made the special order for Tuesday next, 12 o'clock.

Pryne, Contractor for the execution of the Stockade, any sum of money, until a certificate in writing shall be produced from the Superintendent of Public Works, certifying that said work is being done according to contract.

Mr. Love stated that he had facts in possession, if he were at liberty, to reveal them to the Senate, which he had obtained since the introduction of his resolution on yesterday, which would convince the Senate of the necessity and propriety of passing this resolution. After some discussion on his motion, the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings and was sent to the House.

A message was received from the House, transmitting sundry resolutions and bills which were disposed of as follows, to-wit:

Resolution directing the Secretary of State to return to the General Assembly a bill authorizing the Public Treasurer to issue bonds to certain Railroad Companies. On motion of Mr. Barrow, it was laid on the table.

Resolution relating to all acts repealing acts was rejected.

Barnes, Beeman, Bellamy, Eaves, Harrington, Hyman, (colored) Love, Purdie, Richardson, White, Winstead and Robbins voting in the negative—12.

On motion of Mr. Osborne, the Senate adjourned until Monday, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Jan. 16, 1869.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

Mr. Downing made an explanation in reference to his remarks upon Mr. Robbins' card in regard to the Penitentiary affair.—He (Downing) had said he could prove that Mr. Robbins, at one time, said he would sign the report of the Committee. He had made this statement, after a conversation with Col. C. L. Harris. But on yesterday Mr. Robbins, in company with Mr. Harris, called on him, and, during the conversation that ensued, Mr. Harris stated that he could not say positively that Mr. R. ever committed himself to sign the report: Therefore he (Downing) made this statement in justice to Mr. Robbins.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

J. H. Harris, colored, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported favorably upon several bills, which were placed on the Calendar and will be noticed when they are taken up.

Mr. French, from the Committee of conference in regard to the bill authorizing certain counties to issue bonds, reported that legislation is unnecessary and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Barnett, from the Committee on Corporations, reported upon several bills, which will be noticed when they come up.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Jarvis: A resolution instructing the Committee on Counties and Townships to report adversely upon the formation of new counties, that do not propose to contain the one hundred and twentieth part of the population of the State, &c. Lies over.

By Mr. French: A resolution raising a Committee of three, on the part of the House, and two on the part of the Senate, to investigate the affairs and management of the North Carolina and Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, and report to the Assembly as early as possible. Lies over.

By Mr. Smith, of Alleghany: A bill in favor of the Sheriff of Alleghany Co. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to prevent the sale of property, exempted by the Constitution, known as the Homestead exemption:

The question recurred upon the amendment offered by Mr. Vest, yesterday, which, after some debate between Mr. Ingram for, and Mr. Hodnett against, the bill, was put and lost.

The amendment reported by the Committee was then adopted, [striking out all after the word "misdemeanor," in line 4, section 2.]

Mr. Parker then spoke for some time in opposition to the whole bill.

The substitute offered yesterday by J. H. Harris, of Wake, colored, was next put to a vote and lost.

On motion of Mr. Ingram, the previous question was called.

On the passage of the bill, on its second reading, the yeas and nays were called, on motion of Mr. Silley, and resulted in the following ballott:

YEAS—Messrs. Allison, Argo, Ashworth, Banner, Barnett, Blair, Carey, (colored,) Cherry, (colored,) Clayton, of Transylvania, Crawford, (colored,) Downing, Durham, Ellington, Ferebee, Forkner, (colored,) Foster, Franklin, French, Gatling, Graham, Green, Harris, of Wake, (colored,) Hendricks, Hinnant, Hoffman, Humphries, Hudgins, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Davie, Kelly, of Moore, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, (colored,) McMillan, Moring, Moore, Morrill, Morris, (colored,) Proctor, Proffit, Ragland, Renfrow, Robbins, (colored,) Robinson, Reynolds, (colored,) Siegrist, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, (colored,) Sykes, (colored,) Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Williams, of Harnett, Williams, of Sampson, and Williamson, (colored,)

NAYS.—Messrs. Armstrong, Carson, Cawthorn, (colored,) Davidson, Gahagan, Gibson, Grier, Hawkins, High, Horney, Leary, (colored,) Matheson, Painter, Parker, Peck, Rev. Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Thompson and Whitley.

On motion of J. H. Harris, colored, House bill No. 117 was made the special order for Monday next, at half past 10 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Sinclair, the rules were suspended, and Mr. Ingram's exemption bill, just under discussion, was taken up and passed its third reading.

The hour for the special order was announced, to-wit: The bill to provide for the collection of taxes by the State, and by the several counties of the State, on property, polls and incomes.

The discussion upon section 11 was resumed.

Mr. Estes offered the following substitute for the section, which was adopted:

"Sec. 11.—Every person liable to be listed within the township shall, within the time prescribed, give in to the Assessor, on oath, all the taxable subjects, for which he is liable. If the tax-payer is sick, or a female, or absent from the country, the oath may be taken before any officer qualified to administer an oath, and the list in writing must be returned to the proper Assessor."

The section was then adopted.

In section 12, Mr. Estes moved to strike out the words "so given." Carried.

Mr. Matheson offered the following substitute for paragraph 1 of the section:

"The number of acres of land in his Township, what portion of it is wood land, and the last valuation, describing the land by name or otherwise, so as to be identified." Lost.

Mr. Durham offered the following substitute for the whole section:

"At the times and places appointed by the assessors, the tax payers of the townships shall attend, and the assessors shall read over to each one giving in his list all the articles and subjects of taxation, and thereupon he shall render to the assessors his list of taxables, and at the same time shall take the oath prescribed in Section 58, Chapter 99, Revised Code."

After quite a long debate, the substitute was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Argo moved to amend the preamble of the section by inserting, in line 2, the word "taxable" after word "the." Carried.

Mr. French moved to amend line 10, after the word "hogs," by inserting "dogs, goats, jacks, jennies and sheep."

The question upon the "dog tax" created quite a spicy debate—some arguing that dogs were a luxury, and, therefore, should be taxed, while some contended that they were nuisances and should on that account be taxed. Some opposed the tax as it might operate oppressively upon poor farmers who were obliged to keep them.

B. W. Morris, (colored,) said that during the late campaign, their opponents charged that even dogs would be taxed.—He had taken the liberty of denying the charge, but now the truth of that assertion was coming true. He moved to amend the amendment by striking out the word "dog."

Isham Sweat, (colored,) opposed the striking out the word "dog." He thought the wool growing portion of the State demanded some legislation upon this matter.

Cuffee Mayo, (colored,) was under an apprehension that this debate would cause this body to obtain the subriquet of the "DOG LEGISLATURE." He hoped the word in question would be stricken out.

The question recurred upon Morris' amendment to the amendment, and it was rejected.

Mr. French's amendment was then put to a vote and lost.

On motion of Mr. Ferebee, sub-divisions 8 and 9 were stricken out.

Section 12, as amended, was then adopted.

The House then adjourned until Monday, 10 o'clock.

The great clamor against the assessment of premium notes, or their deduction from the policy in case of death, does not apply to the Connecticut Mutual, for, judging the future by the past, the dividends will cancel the premium notes whether the party lives or dies.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, or was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langour and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel; Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

Those satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label

DIGEST OF NEWS.

North Carolina Bonds: New 64¼

The Supreme Court of this State have re-elected Hon S. F. Phillips Reporter. No election of Clerk as yet.

Jno. B. French, of New Hampshire, via the First Congressional District, has been elected an "honorary" member of the National Negro Association.

The negro Convention now in session in Washington called upon Langston, "the intelligent contraband," for a speech. Here is a part of what he said: "The enemy of the colored man was to be found in the North. The negro in the South has his rights, can vote and hold office, but in the North it is different."

The material, type, machinery and office furniture of the Charleston Mercury were disposed of on last Tuesday, at auction, and purchased by different persons.

Wm. M. Stewart has been re-elected U. S. Senator from Nevada.

The Selma (Ala.) Times says:

"We do not believe there was ever before the war even, as much surplus money in Alabama as there will be when the crop of last year shall have been disposed of."

This agrees with what the Mobile Register recently said on the same subject, and will be pleasant news to the whole country.

CARPET-BAGGER. A thing that would sell its birthright—if it had any.

Alexander H. Stephens will enter at once upon his duties as Professor at the University of Georgia.

The New York World persists in its explorations and exposures. It is now upon drugs and lamp oils. Its own ch mist, and the chemist of the Board of Health, make sad havoc of the apothecaries. One is more disposed than ever, after reading the analyses, to throw physic to the dogs. As to oils, it appears, that of 79 samples of kerosene oil sold in New York, only one, and that prepared in Boston, was safe. All the rest contained a sufficient quantity of explosive matter to render them highly dangerous. Dr. Chandler, for the Board of Health, says you had better have powder in your lamp; that will be quiet while the oil will seek the flame.

Don Piatt says in his last Washington letter—"Grant, instead of being very taciturn, can talk like a racer when he feels at home in his hearers and subject. He fell in with some old ladies the other day, and rattled on for an hour in the most alarming way."

The Little Rock Gazette says that there are in the lower House of the Arkansas Legislature 85 members, of whom 82 are Radicals and 1 a Democrat. There are 94,500 voters in the State, of whom 70,000 are whites 23 000 negroes, and 1,500 carpet-baggers, being a white majority of 45,500 Yet such has been the rascality of the Radicals, and such have been the frauds and impositions practiced upon the people, that the Legislature is almost wholly Radical.

THE School of Rev. Dr. Mason and Mr. F. G. Ryan, for boys, has resumed its exercises. This is one of the most excellent schools in the country and deserves a liberal support.

SUGAR FROM SORGHUM.—Mr. W. F. Beasley, of Kentucky, (formerly of this State,) as announced by us on Saturday, is in this city, exhibiting specimens of the sugar made from sorghum, and prepared to dispose of the patent as to the process of manufacture. We have seen some of the specimens exhibited by Mr. B, and find the sugar fully equal, in appearance, purity and taste, to any we have ever seen. What a mine of wealth is here opened to our people! We have no doubt, from what we have seen, of the entire success of this production in the future. The sugar in question was made by the Southern Sorgho Company of Louisville. Mr. Beasley will remain in the city a day or two longer, and his specimens may be seen at P. F. Pescud & Son's Drug Store.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The 2nd. term of the current series of Washington College—Gen. Robert E. Lee, President,—begins on the first of February. See advertisement.

Change of Schedule: A. B. Andrews, Superintendent of Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.

Notice of application to amend the charter of the N. C. College.

MCCORMICK, THE REAPER MAN.—Cyrus H. McCormick is a Virginian by birth, being a native of Rockbridge county. He is a Presbyterian, as every man born in that county is supposed to be until the contrary is shown. In 1859 he gave $100,000 to a Presbyterian theological seminary in Chicago, to be paid in instalments. The institution turned out to be a Radical headquarters—a nursery of ranting hypocrites who hate more than they love. Having a love for his native land, and being unwilling to pay her traducers for their dirty work, Mr. McCormick declines to pay the rest of the unpaid instalments, declaring that the consideration has totally failed. He is of course vigorously pelted with Radical paper bullets by the political parsons in charge of the seminary, and their Radical allies of the newspaper press; but he seems to regard them as being not very dangerous, and scorns to reply to them. We trust he will be able to "hold his own."—Richmond Dispatch.

OH, EVERYTHING! OH, EVERYBODY!

IN ONE WORD,

OH, RECONSTRUCTION!!

Listen to the tale, not of "the Tub," but of the Penitentiary.

The Committee, Dr. Love and Messrs. G. W. Welker and Silas Burns, appointed to investigate the Penitentiary fraud—which Committee is known, by Radicals, as one of the smelling Committees—smelt something rotten, not in Denmark, but in Chatham.

The following members, with others, constitute the Committee to locate the Penitentiary, viz: James Harris, (colored,) Hyman, (colored,) Hugh Downing, (Radical white,) Renfrow, (Radical white,) R. W. Lassiter, (our Kildee correspondent,) and Senator Robbins, (Democrat,) who would not join in, but denounced the purchase.

On the —— day of ——, this Committee bought a site at Lockville, for the Penitentiary, and then bought 8,000 acres of land, some 10 or 12 miles from the site,—for what, Cebe Harris and a few others only know!

The Governor signed the $100,000 dollars of Bonds, which paid for the purchase. If he knows why it was bought, he has never said.

Dr. McKay sold to Col. Heck, for the Deep River Mining Company, (so Col. H says,) 7,650 acres of land for $6,690,—1,000 acres at $3 per acre, and 6,650 acres at 65 cents per acre.

Col. Heck sold to D. J. Pryne, from Gen Laffin's State, for $56,000, and Pryne sells to C. L. Harris and the Committe for $100,000. No deeds are passed until all the trades have been negotiated and agreed upon.

Pryne, on the 9th of November, takes a bond from Heck to make him title to the land. About the 27th of November, Heck gets a deed from Dr. McKay, who was rejoiced to sell his land at 65 cents an acre.—On the 3rd of October, Pryne sells to Cebe Harris and the Committee, for the State, at $100,000—$12,50 cents per acre.

On the 10th of November, Harris gives Pryne an order on the Treasurer for $44?000 and Heck an order for $56,000.

On the 30th of December, Dr. Love, at Lockville, the Penitentiary site, proposed to Pryne, and Col. Heck, as President of his Mining Company, that if they would cancel the trade, the Committee would not even go to look at the 8,000 acre part of the purchase, This was declined. Again and again the proposition is made and always declined.

On Tuesday, the 14th of January, after a two hours' consultation of Dr. Love with Pryne, Pryne refused to rescind the 8,000 acre trade.

Now old Downing wakes up. Here's a giant among the pigmies. He's from Pennsylvania. He trades, not in thousands, but in hundreds of thousands. Five minutes before the report of the investigating Committee is read to the Senate, this live-oak Downing, this Rothschild of the House, enters the Senate and tells Dr. Love he will buy the Penitentiary land at $100,000,—but it is too late. The report and the exposure are made to the Senate. On the morning after the report is read, Dr. Love and Mr. Welker of the Committee are found in ugly caricature on the mantelpiece of the Senate Chamber.

Old Downing, from the Key Stone State, said on the floor of the House, as reported:

"This Penitentiary affair has created so much debate that I will put it to rest by buying for myself the whole land at 100,000 dollars, to be paid in bonds of the State at par. He wanted the matter acted upon forthwith, as he had already a proposition to purchase the property in question, and it he could only buy he would make a nice little sum for himself."

In the mean time, it is certain that, after waking up, old Sleepy from the Keystone State went to Richmond, where, it is supposed, he saw Gen. Littlefield, Editor of the Standard.

How the people will thank Dr. Love for his expose of this villainy!

The perjury we are not allowed now to speak of, but there has been close, hard swearing done before Dr. Love's Committee. Resolutions, it is rumored, will soon be offered in the Legislature, expressing want of confidence in the Superintendent of Public Works, and asking him to abdicate. We say "Cebe, hold on! the negroes and carpet-baggers elected you, by the force of reconstruction and the power of the sword. We know you to be as good as most of your party, and better than many in higher places than you occupy. If you have any of the pluck of Ashley, the Pilgrim, or old John Brown, you will hold on!"

And now, if we were in favor at Gen. Miles' Headquarters, we would send over and request the Band of the 40th Infantry, whose martial notes we hear as we pen these lines, to play the "Rogue's March."—If Shober and Durham, our Representatives, were in Washington, we would telegraph them, in the language of Gen. Ledlin's dispatch to Holden, when we "got home:"

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er Carolina's dark sea!"

REPUBLICAN HONESTY.

If the following article from the Newbern Republican speaks the honest sentiments of the Editor's heart, he will publish our advertisement and reward of $50,000 for Gen. Littlefield, Editor of the Standard, and forward his bill as requested.

If this advertisement does not bring the absconding Editor, in a few days, we shall offer $100,000 more, at the request of a member of the Legislature.

Show your honesty, Mr. Republican, still further and publish the advertisement:

"We publish below the article that appeared in the Raleigh Standard on the 12th in reference to Col. Sweet, that our readers may know exactly what it is that the Senator from Craven has taken offense at. The Standard takes the opportunity to speak in a very bold and violent way in regard to the gentleman, and accuses him of making charges that he does not see fit to substantiate. There is seldom a quarrel that has not two sides to it, and if the truth was known, as it certainly will be known, there may be more in the affair than the Standard's editorial has seen fit to ventilate. No body who knows Mr. Sweet doubts his truthfulness and sincerity, and no body doubts but he has facts in his possession that would warrant him, or any other honest man, in being disgusted with the dishonesty that has been carried with a high hand, by many of the reported ring. The Standard may see fit to tell what has become of the gentleman connected with the Standard office who has absented himself from his place of business, and who, if he could be found, would be able, if he chose, to throw some light on the facts Senator Sweet is confident do exist and intends to prove. It is not a pleasant thing to expose villainy and corruption among a man's own associates, and the public can rest assured that Mr. Sweet has not done it, without some very good reason which will no doubt eventually be shown. The Standard seems to be a trifle uneasy about the affair, to say the least, and we venture to say the thing will yet be explained to the satisfaction of honest men, and disgrace of RASCALS AND VILLAINS."

MORE TOURGEISM.—An estimable lady of Alamance, some time since when expressing her opinion, with some little feminine license, of scallawags and carpet-baggers, was grossly insulted and struck in the mouth, by a Bureau carpet-bagger. We learn that at the late term of Alamance Court, "Judge" Tourgee fined this cowardly miscreant five cents for the outrage! Comment would be superfluous.—Raleigh Sentinel.

The action of the infamous Tourgee caps the climax for Radical meanness and Judicial prejudice, but we have a "Jaybird" (says the Tarboro Southerner) down this way who will run his compeer a tight race for the championship.

For instance—

A crowd of negroes, mad with liquor and armed with every conceivable weapon, surrounded the house of one of the most respectable citizens of Washington, threatening the life of himself and family. A serious and bloody riot is avoided only by the prudence of the gentleman and his friends. At the first term of the Court the negroes are indicted for a riot, the facts fully proved, and his "Honor" imposes the extreme punishment of a ten dollar fine and dismissed them, encouraged to commit any other act of brutality and outrage.

Case No. 2.—Off-set.

A young man, well connected, has a personal difficulty with the Radical Sheriff, in which the official duty of that officer is in no way involved.

One slight blow is passed; the parties are separated and no damage done.

The young man is indicted for an assault; the facts proved, and for this grave offence he is, by order of the "Jaybird," imprisoned for thirty days in the Common Jail of the County and fifty dollars.

Verily we live in curious times, and have wondrous wise administrators of law and justice.

LIES.—Senator Sweet begins to find out something of the character of the men with whom party affiliations have surrounded him. When we charge the Standard and kindred sheets and political adventurers with lying and thieving, it is regarded as party prejudice, but now from good Republican quarters the charge comes and is backed too by the assurance of positive proof. We have long felt that the Standard could not go on its course of falsehood and slander without coming in contact with honesty and integrity within its own party, and then would come the proper exposure. We know not who edits that unreliable and scurrilous sheet. Certainly they are men without name or character, and we regret to see the name of a North Carolinian, who once had some claim to decency and regard, announced as its publisher. We direct attention to the remarks of Senator Sweet in the proceedings of the Senate, in this connection.—Wil. Journal.

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals! Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—so let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by

to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen! Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
